

5 MINUTES WITH ...

JOANNE KUA

Joanne Kua is CEO and executive director of KSK Group Bhd. She is also the managing director of KSK Land Sdn Bhd, the developer of 8Conlay, a luxurious, branded, integrated development in Kuala Lumpur city centre.

The well-heeled Kua takes a few minutes off her busy schedule to take part in our "5 Minutes" section.

1) What are the three things on your bucket list?

Travelling — a month away in South America with Awasi Patagonia as a must-visit; building a house by a cliff with an amazing ocean view; and creating an education-based social enterprise that can effect change for young Malaysians.

2) Where is your favourite place to travel and why?

Japan, for its food experience, design and culture.

3) What are the three things you can't live without?

Family, coffee and intellectual challenges.

4) What is your guilty pleasure?

Watching Netflix.

5) What book are you currently reading? Who is your favourite author?

I'm currently reading Elon Musk: Tesla, SpaceX and the Quest for a Fantastic Future. My favourite author is Steve Berry. I love the combination of real history and mystery fiction.
